Established in 1992, Murr Siler & Accomazzo, P.C. is engaged in the practice of law in Denver, Colorado. Though relatively diversified, we usually represent businesses in general practices, commercial transactions and litigation.

We emphasize the following areas of law:

1. Business Transactional Representation. Our firm regularly provides guidance and representation to various business clients regarding the creation and management of business entities, the drafting of governing documents, including commercial contracts, operating agreements, bylaws, resolutions, buy-sell agreements and all matters associated with sales, mergers and acquisitions of business interests.
2. Mortgage Lending. Mortgage lending is a highly specialized area where extensive knowledge of the underlying business is a prerequisite to effective legal representation. We assist our clients in mortgage lending transactions, such as sales and purchases of loans and loan servicing. We provide services related to compliance issues, including the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, Truth-in-Lending, and state law compliance issues. We also handle mortgage lending litigation, including class action defense, lawsuits against mortgage insurers, defense of lender liability claims and repurchase disputes.
3. Commercial Litigation. Litigation comprises a substantial portion of our firm's practice. Our trial lawyers are experienced advocates who regularly represent clients in trial and appellate courts at the federal and state levels, as well as in the federal bankruptcy court. Our firm always considers the need to resolve disputes in the most cost-effective way possible, and often employs alternative dispute resolution methods such as mediation and arbitration where feasible. We often represent banks, mortgage companies and other financial institutions in asserting creditors' rights, including suits involving promissory note collection, defense of lender liability, bankruptcy, fraudulent transfers, the Uniform Commercial Code and landlord-tenant matters.
4. Real Estate. Real estate transactional practice is a central focus of our firm, and we often represent commercial and residential sellers, purchasers and lenders. We also regularly assist real estate lenders in resolving issues related to troubled real estate loans, including conducting judicial and non-judicial foreclosures, establishing receiverships and facilitating workout agreements. This representation also includes pursuing creditors' rights in the bankruptcy court on issues such as relief from stay, confirmation hearings, claim disputes and objections to discharge.
